

CALIFORNIA DECA
STATE CAREER DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE
FEBRUARY 27 – MARCH 2, 2020

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

FRIDAY

DRESS FOR SUCCESS

Friday, February 28, 4 pm

Presented by Men's Warehouse

In a diverse and often noisy world, it can be extremely difficult to work and lead in a team setting. By engaging in interactive activities such as Space Team and The Marshmallow Challenge, attendees will learn how to apply synergy, a shared vision, and clear communication to the challenges they face in any group or team setting.

NAVIGATING STUDENT LEADERSHIP

Friday, February 28, 5 pm

Presented by Dominica Chavez, TEAMTRI

Sometimes being a student leader is hard. With pressure coming from a variety of sources, it can be difficult to stay on course. Through engaging activities focused on empowering others, self-reflection about energy, and group discussion about experiences, attendees will uncover a variety of skills and resources that can be leveraged to strengthen and navigate their student leadership journey.

LEADING THROUGH DIFFERENCES

Friday, February 28, 6 pm

Presented by Dominica Chavez, TEAMTRI

In a diverse and often noisy world, it can be extremely difficult to work and lead in a team setting. By engaging in interactive activities such as Space Team and The Marshmallow Challenge, attendees will learn how to apply synergy, a shared vision, and clear communication to the challenges they face in any group or team setting.

LEADERSHIP LESSONS FROM THE MOUSE

Friday, February 28, 7 pm

Presented by Dylan Kennedy, TEAMTRI

Sometimes the best way to learn leadership is through stories. Take a journey back in time to revisit the stories of some magical friends that we all know and love. Buckle up and hold on tight as we embark on a classic leadership adventure... here we go!

SATURDAY

BRAND YOURSELF LIKE A BOSS

Saturday, February 29, 11 am

Presented by Dylan Kennedy, TEAMTRI

Building your personal brand can seem daunting at first. However, it can be a lot of fun along the way! In this workshop learn how to define who you are, how you are great, and why you deserve that awesome position with your personal brand.

MAKE LEADERSHIP GO VIRAL – TIKTOK STYLE

Saturday, February 29, 1 pm

Presented by Dylan Kennedy, TEAMTRI

Being a true Leader is being able to connect with the people you lead, sometimes that involves stepping out of your comfort zone and trying new things! At this interactive workshop challenge your inner leader and creative mind by thinking outside the box to produce your very own TikTok. Who knows, maybe you'll even go viral!

LEADING OUTSIDE OF THE BOX

Saturday, February 29, 2 pm

Presented by Dominica Chavez, TEAMTRI

Sometimes leadership isn't always straight forward. Have you ever found yourself stuck writing a speech or planning a chapter event? Then, this is the workshop for you! Leadership often requires out of the box thinking, creativity, and original ideas. As an attendee, you'll gain the tools for creating, inspiring, and leading.

SUNDAY

NAVIGATING STUDENT LEADERSHIP

Sunday, March 1, 11 am

Presented by Dominica Chavez, TEAMTRI

Sometimes being a student leader is hard. With pressure coming from a variety of sources, it can be difficult to stay on course. Through engaging activities focused on empowering others, self-reflection about energy, and group discussion about experiences, attendees will uncover a variety of skills and resources that can be leveraged to strengthen and navigate their student leadership journey.

LEADING THROUGH DIFFERENCES

Sunday, March 1, 1 pm

Presented by Dominica Chavez, TEAMTRI

In a diverse and often noisy world, it can be extremely difficult to work and lead in a team setting. By engaging in interactive activities such as Space Team and The Marshmallow Challenge, attendees will learn how to apply synergy, a shared vision, and clear communication to the challenges they face in any group or team setting.

LEADERSHIP LESSONS FROM THE MOUSE

Sunday, March 1, 2 pm

Presented by Dylan Kennedy, TEAMTRI

Sometimes the best way to learn leadership is through stories. Take a journey back in time to revisit the stories of some magical friends that we all know and love. Buckle up and hold on tight as we embark on a classic leadership adventure... here we go!

MAKE LEADERSHIP GO VIRAL – TIKTOK STYLE

Sunday, March 1, 3 pm

Presented by Dylan Kennedy, TEAMTRI

Being a true Leader is being able to connect with the people you lead, sometimes that involves stepping out of your comfort zone and trying new things! At this interactive workshop challenge your inner leader and creative mind by thinking outside the box to produce your very own TikTok. Who knows, maybe you'll even go viral!